My Consents & Releases of Information Log

This document will help you keep track of the consents and release of information forms you sign with your care team. You should get a copy of any consent or release of information form you sign. You can list the forms you signed in this log and store each form in this section of your planner. This can help you keep track of your forms.

Date	Consent or Release?	Organization/Provider